Armstead Faulkner, our good neighbor, will shortly move to the farm he purchased in Clark county. We recommend him to the citizens of Clark county.

Ellis, the seven-year-old son of Martha Martin, met with a serious accident, while watching his brother cut down a tree. His skull was fractured, but, we are glad to say, he is improving.

At the home of the bride's father, Mr. John Knox, of Spruce, on Wednesday, January 18, 1899, Mr. Kendrick Combs and Miss Mayme Knox were united in marriage. Mr. Combs is an energetic and upright young man, and Miss Mayme is one of the loveliest young ladies in that locality.

May blessings rich and rare Attend this youthful pair Through all the walks of life, And when the summons comes To end this mortal strife, May they in Heaven roam Still loving, man and wife.

—P. C.

New Firm.

At the top of our personal column will be found the weekly offerings of Mr. F. C. Duerson, druggist. He will have something new each week and by a glance at his advertisement it can be known. This week appears his card, next week will be something else and so on through the entire year.

For groceries, meats, etc.; see Keese.

Si Plunkard, the roaring, rousing rally of fun as presented by J. C. Lewis and his big company of comedians, will create barrels of laughter for those fond of fun at the Grand Opera House, Wednesday evening, Jan. 25. So those who wish an evening to drive away dull care should be on hand to see "Si" and his funny comedians in his new version of the success, Si Plunkard. All new features, new novelties, everything new.

First-class tenants wanted. 28-4t W. E. BEAN.

RELIGIOUS.

Rev. H. D. Combs is holding a meeting at the Beattyville Christian church.

The Rev. Newell Dwight Hillis, of Chicago, has accepted the pastorate of Plymouth church, Brooklyn, to succeed Dr. Lyman Abbott.

The meeting at the Methodist church has continued during the past week with increased interest. The attendance on Sunday night was very large. Up to that time there had been twelve additions to the church.

Rev. Cheek, of Paris, preached at the First Presbyterian church on Sunday evening. Mr. Cheek is one of the leading preachers of his church. At the last session of the Synod at Danville, he was honored as chairman of that body.

He must have been a bright boy—a very bright little boy—who said to his mother: "I wish a lion would eat me up." "Why?" the mother asked. "Because it would be such a good joke for the lion. He would think I was inside of him, and I should be up in heaven."

Elder Mark Collins, pastor of the Broadway Christian church, publishes an open letter to the Democratic leaders in Lexington and Fayette county warning them to nominate good men for office at the coming primary of the good people of Lexington will lower the Democratic banner at the regular election.

"Let the words of my mouth . . . be acceptable in thy sight." How many Christians at the close of a day can say that their words have been acceptable in Christ's sight? These sins of the tongue are so sadly common. The fretful words, the hasty words, the slanderous words, the untruthful words, the blundering, tactless words—how many of these daily must be set down to the discredit of those who wear the sacred name of him who spake as never man spake.

From the Western Watchman we clip the following beautiful story on resisting temptation:

A story is told of a man once asking an Eastern king if he could tell him how to avoid temptation.

The king told the man to take a vessel brimful of oil, and to carry it through the streets of the city without spilling one drop. "If one drop is spilled," said the king, "your head shall be cut off."

And he ordered two executioners with drawn swords to walk behind the man and carry out his orders.

There happened to be a fair going on in the city at the time, and the streets were crowded with people. However, the man was very careful, and returned to the king without having spilled one drop of oil. Then the king said:

"Did you see any one when you were walking through the streets?" "No, sir," said the man. "I was thinking only of the oil. I noticed nothing else."

"There," said the king, "you notice how to avoid temptation. Fix your mind as firmly on God as you fixed it on the vessel of oil. You will not then be tempted to sin."

A protracted meeting will be held with the Baptist church, this city, beginning February 12th. The pastor will have the assistance of Rev. W. R. Penrod, of Paducah. Mr. Penrod has the reputation of being one of the strongest and most entertaining preachers of the South.

Mt. Sterling Young Man Honored.

Mr. Strother D. Mitchell has been elected Vice President of the American Agricultural Library at Lafayette, Ind. Mr. Mitchell is one of our brightest young men with his heart set on making an up-to-date farmer.

After a residence of thirty-three years near Sharpsburg Mr. Peter G. Stoner will next week move to Pembroke, Christian county, Ky. We regret to lose him from our section and wish him success in his new home. Prior to coming to this part of Kentucky he lived in Christian county for thirty-one years. He has been a subscriber to the ADVOCATE since its establishment.

Paper Boycotted.

On account of the part it took in the recent local option election in Richmond, the Register of that place has been boycotted by the saloon men.

Go and see "Si" at the opera house to-morrow night.

DEATHS.

CLAY.

Mrs. Amanda Clay, aged 88, died at her home in Paris on January 13.

LAMPTON.

Wm. H. Lampton, aged 86, died at Winchester on Monday night. His son, W. J. Lampton, is the well known newspaper correspondent at Washington.

WHALEY.

James Whaley, aged 88, died at his home near Millersburg on January 14. He lived at his last home for 56 years. He had married four times.

BOTTS.

On Friday night, January 20, 1899, at his home in Bath beyond Howard's Mill, Thos. Botts, aged about 65, died of paralysis after a sickness of four days. He leaves six sons and a daughter. Burial on Sunday. His son Tom lives near this city.

KING.

On last Friday, January 20, Mary Louise, the bright little three-year-old girl of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. King, of Grassy Lick, was called to heaven, having been but a few days ill with pneumonia. The remains were laid to rest Sunday morning, strewn with beautiful flowers, in the family burial ground near the residence.

THE SICK.

Samuel Fizer has the grip.

Mrs. J. Davis Sewell is improving.

W. B. Calk is still confined with rheumatism.

Miss Annie Samuels is much better. She is sitting up.

Mrs. E. J. Reid who has been quite sick is able to sit up.

Mrs. John White has been quite sick for several days.

James W. Groves, after a sickness of two weeks, is able to sit up.

We are pleased to state that Mrs. J. D. Tipton has almost recovered from the gripe.

Mrs. R. A. Mason, of Beattyville, is quite sick with fever. She was a Miss Fascett of Flat Creek, Bath county.

The brothers John and Joe O'Rear, aged and highly respected citizens of this county, have been very sick for several days.

The wife of Congressman T. Y. Fitzpatrick is dangerously sick with pneumonia at their home in Prestonsburg. She has been sick since Dec. 25th. Her husband has been constantly at her bedside.

The next attraction at the Grand Opera House, Wednesday evening, Jan. 25, will be the well-known rural farce comedy, Si Plunkard, as presented by J. C. Lewis, supported by his Big Comedy Company in his new version of the well-known laughing success, Si Plunkard. This company is noted for carrying the finest orchestra of any company on the road.

The proposed plan to build a branch of the Black Diamond railroad by the way of Owingsville to the coal fields of Morgan county, did not meet with encouragement at Owingsville.

On last Monday Asa Bean shipped to West Virginia parties a pair of mining mules; weight 1100 pounds; price for the pair $190.

The right to collect toll over the new bridge at Jackson, Ky., was let by the Fiscal Court on yesterday. The bridge is not yet completed.

Enoch's for the best goods at cut prices until Feb. 1.

The returns of the Assessor show the taxable property of Carlisle to be $632,210, a slight increase over last year.

G. W. Bramlett has moved from Moorefield to the farm purchased by Joe Booth near Tarr Station.

Go to J. C. Enoch's for bargains. Great discount sales close Feb. 1.

BIG REAL ESTATE DEAL.

F. M. Ewing Buys of Thos. H. Grubbs a Fine Farm.

Mr. Thomas H. Grubbs last week sold to F. M. Ewing, of Bath, his fine farm of about 325 acres, on the Owingsville pike four miles from this city. The price is $70 per acre cash. Mr. Grubbs also sold some live stock, making a total of nearly $25,000.

Mr. Grubbs still owns his fine home farm near town.

Circuit Court Cannot Fix Special Commissions.

The Court of Appeals, in reversing a case sent up from Jefferson county, holds that Court Commissioners can only receive the statutory fees for the sale of property, and that a Circuit Court has no power to fix special compensation for such purposes. It is believed that steps will be taken in several instances to recover fees paid Commissioners in excess of the amount prescribed by statute.

Commissioners For the Philippines Leave To-day.

President Schurman, of Cornell University, Prof. Worcester, of Ann Arbor, and Col. Denby, a newspaper man, of Chicago, are the Philippine Commissioners, and will leave New York to-day.

We Welcome Them.

On Wednesday of last week Mr. A. T. Pieratt and wife moved from Ezel, Morgan county, to Kiddville. We have known them for many years and cheerfully commend them as most worthy citizens to the people of Montgomery and Clark.

Mr. Pieratt will on February 1st open a stock of General merchandise at Kiddville, having bought out Mr. L. M. Beall.

Kerr's Perfection Flour at Keese's, 28-3t

Eagan Arrested.

Commissionary General Eagan was arrested in Washington on Thursday, thus relieving him of the duties of his office, pending his trial by court-martial. The charge is conduct unbecoming to an officer and a gentleman and prejudicial to good order and military discipline. This means his permanent retirement. His successor, Joe Weston, has been selected; he was chief commissary during the Santiago campaign, and has been in the Subsistence Department since 1875.

Mr. S. S. Pinney, formerly traveling salesman for the Chillicothe-Thompson Grocery Co., is now in the employ of White & Day, wholesale grocers, Winchester, Ky. His experience in the business and acquaintance on the road will, no doubt, render him a valuable man to the new firm. Mr. John C. Day, who for several years has been an influential business man at Jackson, recently bought an interest in the business of John G. White, wholesale grocer. These gentlemen will push their business in Eastern Kentucky. We wish them success.

Ben F. Jones, while returning from Sharpsburg, was thrown from his horse. His foot hung in the stirrup and he was dragged some distance, but fortunately escaped with slight injuries.

C. C. McCormick, a merchant at Plum, Bourbon county, is closing out his stock and will soon locate elsewhere.

Call up Keese, the grocer. Goods promptly delivered.

Dissolution.

On February 1st, the firm of T. M. Green & Co., of Grassy Lick, by mutual consent, will be dissolved and Mr. T. M. Green will retire. This requires an immediate settlement of all outstanding accounts, and we hereby give our friends notice. In the meantime we will sell at greatly reduced prices and strictly for cash.

No firm in the State will be able to sell closer than we will. Our stock is complete in every department and it will be our pleasure to give our friends the benefit of the reduction sale. Of course those who come first will get first choice of the stock. We are thankful to a generous public for their patronage, and by honorable dealing hope to continue in their favor.

Very Respectfully,

25-5t T. M. GREEN & Co.
